

The Association

The Cape Cod Art Association, a non-profit membership group continuously operating since its inception in 1948, it serves its members and the community with a variety of fine art programs and events.

The CCAA conducts art classes and workshops for all levels of proficiency and presents fourteen art exhibits each year; seven are for artist members, five are open juried, and two are for students.

CCAA also conducts many special activities and events throughout the year including:

- "Art in the Village" a summer festival held in Barnstable Village on the last weekend in June
- Receptions and awards ceremonies
- Exhibits in outside venues
- Critiques and demonstrations
